WHEREAS, August 14, 1945, marked not only the end of the war but also the beginning of an unparalleled era of rebuilding led by the United States to restore the societies of both its allies and former foes alike and the formation of an array of organizations and institutions that helped to strengthen American democracy by promoting civic engagement, volunteerism, and service to community and country, and

WHEREAS, the courage, dedication, self-sacrifice, and compassion of the "ordinary heroes" of the World War II generation continue to inspire our nation, especially the men and women of the United States Armed Forces who are currently serving around the world protecting our country, and
